

Computer Science
Website Information Request

Are you interested in learning COMPUTER PROGRAMMING? Or maybe you're considering a career in INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY?

Connors State College offers the foundational courses that can start you on your journey. Learning up-to-date, in-demand computer skills can help you prepare for a rewarding career in the industry.

Employment demand in computer and technology related occupations is projected to experience continuous growth. To meet the employment demand for the expanding job market, Connors State College is creating a new Computer Science Program with an array of options.

For more information, contact:

Rhonda Wilson, Title III Computer Science Project Director

Email: rhonda.wilson@connorsstate.edu

Phone: 918-463-6299

Holloway Hall, Warner Campus