

Academic Integrity Inquiry Form

Below is a report indicating a possible violation of Connors State College's Academic Integrity Policy. It is very important that you contact me no later than _____ (time, day, date). My contact information is listed below. Be aware that if you fail to schedule a meeting by the date noted or choose not to attend your scheduled appointment, a decision will be made in your absence based upon the information available as to whether or not a violation of Academic Integrity has taken place. For a complex situation or situations involving multiple students the instructor may postpone any decision about the alleged violation until all the facts have been gathered. You may not drop/withdraw from this course. If you drop or withdraw from the course, you will be re-enrolled in the course by the Registrar.
